 Mr. Johnson has gone to Portland, where he is working for Geo. C. Shaw & Co.

There will be a children's entertainment and social dance at the Hall on Thursday, April 24th, to which all are invited.

Mr. Woodward, P. A. 30, has been visiting friends in town.

Rev. Mr. Hall of Manchester, N. H., preached in the Congreg. church last Sunday.

Mrs. M. B. Barker left for Boston Monday for spring goods.

Mrs. M. B. Howe spent Sunday in Portland.

Mrs. E. G. Fife left for New York, Thursday, for her spring millinery.

Home cleaning is the next thing in order.

At the school meeting in district No. 1, Saturday night, John Ward was chosen agent, T. L. Eastman, clerk.

The temperance meeting in the Congreg. church Sunday evening was quite a success. Rev. Mr. Hall gave a short address followed by speeches by Mr. Woodard, Mr. Farrington and Rev. Mr. Stone.

J. L. Wadsworth was in town Monday.

J. Eastman has gone to Boston, where he will work the coming season.

DOLISTERS HILL.
 Rev. C. Farrington preached for the first time here since the Conference session on the 10th inst. He held a temperance meeting in the evening which was well attended. The people are hoping to see Mr. Farrington return to this charge.

Edna Smith, who has recently been staying in this village, is departing and will soon be taken to the Insane Asylum at Augusta.

Virginia Weston recently returned from Boston, where she has been making a visit. She will teach our village school this summer.

Lisa Harrows has been at home during the last vacation from the German Normal School.

Summer sailings are stopping at home now. He has been working in an Insane Hospital at Mass.

Class. Stuart is on the sick list.

NOBLETON.
 Jabez Barker has secured a lucrative position for a few weeks in a tailor shop in Portland.

Mr. Jennie Noyes is to teach school in district No. 11, Flora J. Jenkins in No. 12, and John from Albany has been hired to work for Mrs. C. Carter this season.

Mr. Daniel Holt, 84 years old, walked 10 miles through mud and sleet the other day to get a job of blacksmithing at Gilead.

Miss Foster has swapped horses with J. Holt.

DANA'S SABBATH-SCHOOL CURESES.
 The Mountain Village Lodge of Gilead, N. H., had a supper night last Saturday night. About thirty members were present and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. C. Aldrich is at work for A. D. Wright for the summer season and lives in the Denbigh house.

There is some talk of having a Liverpool Club.

Mr. C. Cole is canvassing for the Life of W. L. Garrison.

Mrs. L. M. Lary and Mrs. Eva Goodnow visited at Mrs. G. C. Aldrich's one day last week.

Miss Wright has been at home sick with grippe but is better and gone back to school.

PARIS HILL.
 Rev. A. P. Wells delivered a lecture at Lebanon last week.

Mrs. Livermore's lecture at Norway House will be the popular entertainment of the evening.

George Stearns received word last week that his son residing in the South was dead and he and his son Harry have gone to his late home.

Mon. James S. Wright and wife are visiting Boston.

Rev. A. P. Wells is having his vacation and there will be no services at the Baptist church Sunday. He will spend his vacation in Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Mr. P. Morton of Rutland, Vt., has been visiting town.

At the annual meeting of the Paris Hill Academy Corporation the resignations of W. A. Fitch and E. B. Bates as trustees were accepted and Chandler Garland and Frank Bennett were elected to their places. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. S. Austin; vice president, G. M. Atwood; clerk, Chandler Garland; treasurer, G. M. Atwood; executive committee, A. Thayer. Summer term will begin April 24th under an experienced teacher.

TRY DANA'S SABBATH-SCHOOL CURESES.

STANLEY.
 Mr. James of Oxford, has purchased the James Bennett, formerly the Wm. Robbins farm, and moved on to it with his family. We understand that it is a fine property and that it is just the kind of men we want.

Mrs. Fitch Addison of San Francisco, Cal., is spending the winter on her farm here kindly caring for her step-mother, who is 85 years old, and her brother, A. Cummings and his wife, who are invalids.

Mrs. Addison owns several valuable dwellings in San Francisco and she has just been notified that her part of the excess stock in front of her dwellings will be $275. She owns a ranch forty miles from the city of 1200 acres, on which are 200 cows. The farmers of the town and the others are furnished by the man who rents it.

There is quite a lot for oxen. Austin Hutchinson and Dexter A. Cummings are buying and selling.

We have had quite a rain that has settled the snow fast and soon wheels will take the place of runners.

Rev. S. Z. Gould, who has been living at Belmont, N. H., for several years, stopped at the Corner to visit friends Saturday and Sunday. He gave us a good talk on Sunday. He is on his way to Snowdon, where his family have already arrived and where they expect to settle.

Helen Robbins, who has been sick for some time and a great sufferer, passed away Monday morning, funeral Tuesday.

There was a shut down at McAllister's, but they are now on the move again. They saw 10 cords a day with only one helper and one shipper.

George H. Wilbur, who has been attending school in Mass., is sick with influenza and is expected home as soon as he is able.

T. C. Cole has bought a nice pair of oxen of Austin Hutchinson.

Ames L. Bean, who has been attending school at North Portland, on the closing of the term went to visit his uncle, Rev. A. Bean at Conway, N. H.

Pigs are very scarce here in town but have some nice ones and we presume they may want a nice price for them.

RYEBURG CENTER.
 Morill Jewell is to work for F. N. Frye this summer.

Isaac Abbott has sold all his stock, closed up his house and gone to West Bridgton to live with his daughter.

Nettie Abbott is at work for Charles Thibault at Ryeburg.

Ed Foy's little daughter is quite sick. Wm. Wiswell has his timber all rolled in. He had 184 cords.

ROVER CHATTAM, N.H.
 D. O. Pickering is at home from Lynn, Mass.

WEST BRIDGTON.

Mrs. A. S. Bean went to Portland last Sunday.

Baby Fisk Goodnow has been sick for a few days but is better now.

Albert and Myrtle Davis recently visited their friend Mabel Bean.

There was an entertainment and box supper at Grange hall last Friday evening and a fine time reported.

Lottie Fisk has moved and is to stay with her uncle, J. E. Fisk. Her many friends are glad to welcome her back to her old home.

S. W. Potter has a sow that has a litter of ten fine pigs that will be four weeks old May 1st.

Bella Hild has three plants of the new tree tomato that is advertised to grow ten feet high.

Mollie Barker has returned from her visit to Washington, D. C., and reports she had a fine time.

J. E. Allen has just received a car-load of Williams & Clark's Corn Meal.

Pleasant River Lodge of Good Templars, No. 100, recently received visitors from Pleasant Pond Lodge, No. 10, of Casco. We think it a fine plan for members of different lodges to visit each other's meetings in order to make more pleasant and interesting.

S. T. Ordway of Woodstock has been very willing for good medicine and other troubles and it is reported to be a good thing.

Prescott Bennett reports that he will move to Norway the first of May.

RUMFORD CENTRE.
 Ferrying to the Centre.

A deer caught on Pine Island just above the village. After crawling around the island for some time came back and was shot by Mr. Newman.

John R. Howe has been appointed supervisor. Jennie Martin resigned.

H. M. Colby has been drawn juror for the May term of court.

R. C. Doleff has gone to Portland to buy goods.

Eugene Barker has bought a pair of gray horses weighing twenty-three hundred pounds, for which he paid three hundred and seventy-five dollars.

Lots of men are waiting for jobs at Rumford Falls, with not much encouragement at present.

We notice that Haverhill is to do lots of building this spring, and also that Minot and Spring Ledges are large lumber-ships numbering 107. Go on, brothers and sisters in the good work. May the springing wheel of your universal spring for which your lodge was named never be split again.

NORWAY CENTER.
 N. A. Foster is very sick with congestion of the brain. Was taken with a chill very suddenly last Friday. Mrs. Anna from North Norway is taking care of him.

Jennie Verrell is at work for Mrs. Nelson Abbott.

Emma Bird is at work for Mrs. S. A. Holt.

G. M. Richardson seems to be improving. He has been out for a few days.

The heavy rain Saturday night started the frost out of the roads in some places. Those who have sap orchards have to work early and late some all night, to boil down as fast as it runs.

Paul Howe is at work for Alvin Brown. Herbert Hobbs was in town one day last week.

NORTH BRIDGTON.
 Mrs. Nellie Libby and her husband, of Sanford, spent several days at her father's, C. C. Hamlin's, for Easter Monday to their home with them.

C. C. Hamlin is in Portland serving on the jury.

Mrs. Baker and family have moved to the Centre, where she has bought the Laverie's second hand.

J. A. Nichols, a former graduate of the Academy, now in Bowdoin, is in town.

Rev. A. P. Wells is having his vacation and there will be no services at the Baptist church Sunday. He will spend his vacation in Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Mr. P. Morton of Rutland, Vt., has been visiting town.

The young people of this place will go to Selden Plinkham's at North Ryeburg last Saturday evening to a dance. B. S. Long has been visiting.

Dana Hill has been quite sick for the past week with the grippe.

The box party at Nora Pickering's last week was a success. await the action of the Oxford County Court.

At the school meeting in district No. 1, Saturday night, John Ward was chosen agent, T. L. Eastman, clerk.

Highest of all in Leaving Power.—U. S. Gov't Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

Royal Baking Powder
 ABSOLUTELY PURE
LA GRIPPE.

HOW TO PREVENT IT.
USE BROWN'S "INSTANT RELIEF" NIGHT AND MORNING.

A small quantity taken in cold water on rising and retiring quickens the circulation and fortifies the system against influenza.

We presume our assessors have long since ascertained the number of taxable dwellings in town and would like to have some one explain how a tax can be levied or collected by law on what the law does not accept as property.

Mr. Fickett goes away this week for a two week's absence. We understand that Mrs. F. Conson will occupy the parlor on Sabbath with Mr. Fickett's away.

P. R. Merrill and the other boys are only waiting for good weather so they can appear out with their stappers and newly painted skis. Anderson boats of many fine little mugs and Greg's Griffin can show his share of representative, perfect "vels of the old black."
